The Mission: Narrative Meta-Analysis

In Asian Spaces (IAS) is a cross-continental digital ecosystem dedicated to the deep-dive analysis of Transnational IP & Global Screen Adaptations.

We specialize in the "meta-analysis" of storytelling, bridging the gap between Digital-First Source Materials (Webtoons, Manga, & Light Novels) and global screen adaptations through high-impact visual curation and accredited industry journalism.

Press Accreditation & Industry Presence

IAS is a recognized press entity with recurring official accreditation for the world's most influential media and cultural events:

- Tribeca Festival (Official Press)
- BookCon (Official Press)
- New York Comic Con (NYCC) (Official Press)
- Anime NYC (Official Press)
- New York Travel & Adventure Show (Official Press)

Audience Influence & Market Reach

IAS commands a world-facing presence, strategically balanced between established Western markets and explosive mobile-first growth hubs.

-Market Anchor: Significant footprint in the United States (32%), supported by steady engagement from the UK and Canada.

-Strategic Growth: High-intent readership across Brazil and Southeast Asia, mirroring primary expansion markets for digital fiction.

-Web Authority: 770,000+ Lifetime Views | 98% Search Engine Dominance & Intent-Driven Traffic.

-SEO Performance: Average Google Position of 6.5 (Top 10 dominance for niche media keywords).

-Visual Discovery: 800k+ Monthly Pinterest Views | 1.88m 90-Day Impressions.
